Relator-Plaintiff's Notice of Intent for Summary Judgment

Comes now Relator-Plaintiff, Torm Howse, providing twenty-one (21) days' notice of intention to file summary judgment upon the primary fact that abortion-on-demand must immediately be stopped in all present forms, nationwide. Simply put, there is no defense.

Indeed, the filing of a separate motion for preliminary injunction is clearly superfluous when the same overwhelming fact is so ardently and urgently clear, that F.R.Cv.P. Rule 56(f)(3) becomes promptly incumbent upon this Court to immediately issue, upon its own accord, wisdom, and fiduciary duties to America, the appropriate preliminary injunction.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Torm Howse
